Stockholm Creative Edition 2023 follows the theme Hey Future!

Stockholm Creative Edition

24 to 27 May, Sweden

Design festival Stockholm Creative Edition hosts its third edition in May 2023, with product launches, exhibitions and open showrooms.

The festival celebrates furniture, lighting and crafts across Sweden's capital city, this year following the theme Hey Future!, which explores ambition in the design industry.

Dezeen is a media partner for Stockholm Creative Edition 2023.

About Dezeen Events Guide

Dezeen Events Guide is our guide to the best architecture and design events taking place across the world each year.

The guide is updated weekly and includes virtual events, conferences, trade fairs, major exhibitions and design weeks, as well as up-to-date information about what events have been cancelled or postponed due to the ongoing coronavirus pandemic.

Inclusion in the guide is free for basic listings, with events selected at Dezeen's discretion. Organisers can get enhanced or premium listings for their events, including images, additional text and links, by paying a modest fee.

In addition, events can ensure inclusion by partnering with Dezeen. For more details on inclusion in Dezeen Events Guide and media partnerships with Dezeen, email eventsguide@dezeen.com.
